FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Emerio stays resilient with recognition as one of Singapore's Top 50 Companies

Singapore, 2 November 2009 – Emerio GlobeSoft, one of Singapore's largest privately held IT services companies offering technology and outsourcing services demonstrates its resilience during the prevailing economic crisis by emerging as one of Singapore's Top 50 Companies in Enterprise 50 Award 2009.

Enterprise 50, in its 15th year of recognizing successful enterprises evaluates quantitative and qualitative aspects such as financial performance, business model, innovations and governance of a company. Mr. Harish Nim, Founder and CEO of Emerio GlobeSoft received the award with great pride and said "The road has been tough and this acknowledgement for our contribution to the economy spurs Emerio's determination to continue to grow in every aspect. This award is a valuable asset that will take Emerio's brand image to greater heights."

Emerio is delighted to have received the Enterprise 50 award which is the third award within a span of two months. Mr. Harish Nim was the SICCI Indian Entrepreneur Award winner for large enterprise category and the company was also recently conferred the International Headquarters Award by EDB.

Emerio which has grown along with its customers for more than a decade providing technology services, developing effective application and managing their IT needs, is now strengthening its competency and service offerings leveraging on business applications such as SAP and Cloud computing to meet the growing demand. The company is also reaching into the ASEAN market through possible acquisitions of companies that complement its business strategy.
